UNIVERSITY OF DAR ES SALAAM SCHOOL OF LAW

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR SCHOLARSHIP AND ADMISSION INTO THE MASTER OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY (MIP) PROGRAMME
2026/2027 ACADEMIC YEAR

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates for admission into the Master of Intellectual Property (MIP) Programme. The Programme is jointly offered by the University of Dar es Salaam (UDSM) in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, the African Regional Intellectual Property Organization (ARIPO), the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and the Business Registrations and Licensing Agency (BRELA), the National Intellectual Property Office of Tanzania.

PROGRAMME DURATION AND STRUCTURE

The maximum duration of the Programme is eighteen months, running from 30th September 2026 to 30th March 2028, inclusive of holidays, and is structured in three phases set out below.

- First Phase, September 2026 to November 2026. Distance Learning Phase delivered through the WIPO Academy Distance Learning Programme.
- Second Phase, November 2026 to March 2027. Residential Phase requiring physical attendance of lectures at the University of Dar es Salaam in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania.
- Third Phase, April 2027 to March 2028. Dissertation Phase requiring research and writing on an approved research topic.

The Programme adopts a comparative approach, with particular emphasis on the interface between intellectual property law and policy in the context of the prevailing economic and social dynamics in Africa. The Distance Learning Phase is coordinated by the WIPO Academy. Residential lectures and supervision of dissertations are provided by leading academics, intellectual property practitioners, intellectual property officers and other experts drawn from across Africa.

The Programme's details are available on the UDSM School of Law website at www.udsm.ac.tz/university-dar-es-salaam-school-law/programmes and on the ARIPO Academy website at www.aripo.org/browse/academy/masters-in-intellectual-property.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Eligible candidates must hold a minimum of a Bachelor degree with at least a Lower Second Class (GPA of 2.7) or its equivalent from a recognised institution of higher learning, in any discipline. Proof of English proficiency is required. Applicants from countries in which English is not an official language must submit evidence of proficiency in an appropriate internationally recognised English examination such as IELTS or TOEFL. Upon satisfactory completion of the Programme, candidates will be awarded the Master of Intellectual Property (MIP) degree of the University of Dar es Salaam.
